Alternatively, you can arrange for the ballot paper to be sent to someone else within your business/organisation so long as that person is located at either the address of the hereditament (business premise) itself within the BID area, or at your principal place of business within England.

You can do this by writing to The Ballot Holder (address overleaf) with the name and address of the person to whom the ballot paper should be sent with the details of their position in your business/organisation.

Lost ballot papers

Ballot papers will be sent to those who are eligible to vote on Thursday 26 January 2012. If you (or your proxy if you appoint one) have not received your ballot paper by Monday 27 February 2012, you may apply to The Ballot Holder (address overleaf) for a replacement paper, providing evidence of your identity.

Spoilt ballot papers

If you inadvertently spoil your ballot paper in such a manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper, please return it to The Ballot Holder (address overleaf). On receipt of the spoilt ballot paper, a replacement will be issued. No replacements can be issued if the spoilt ballot paper is received by The Ballot Holder later than Monday 27 February 2012.

Count of ballot papers

Ballot papers will be counted on Thursday 1 March 2012 after the close of the ballot and the result will be available on Friday 2 March 2012. For a BID ballot to be successful, there must be a majority of those voting in favour of the proposal, both in terms of the numbers voting and also the rateable value represented by those voting.
